To whom it may concern,

It has been my pleasure to supervise Jeff Garver for the last 6 years in his position as designer/illustrator that included the responsibility of proposal graphics lead. An important role to which Jeff displayed exceptional leadership and ability to accomodate any fixed schedule. Also, among executing a wide variety of in-house promotional activities he has had significant responsibility coordinating and designing multiple division newsletters across numerous locations. Jeff is a collaborative team player, being able to give strong ideas and receive feedback while working towards a common goal.

In my opinion, Jeff would provide immediate benefit to any creative team as he is dedicated, hard working and has brought a versatile set of skills and talent to my group. I can't recommend him highly enough.

Please contact me if you require additional information.

Sincerely,
